POLISH CITY CAPTURED

Attempts Murder; Ends Own Life

DR. KERGAN VICTIM OF THREAT

Double Alarm Precedes Self-slaughter by Cafe Man
Dies Behind Barricaded Doors While Police Pursue

After attempting to murder Julio Lepao, a saloonkeeper, at 5059 Fifth street, and making threats against the life of Dr. W. W. Korgan, Joseph Rogers went to his home at 347 Henry street, and when the police arrived to arrest him, barricaded himself in his room and committed suicide.

According to Captain of Inspectors W. J. Petersen, Rogers had a bad police record.

Rogers went to the saloon this morning and demanded a drink of whiskey. While talking to the bartender, Rogers shouted "I am going to murder Dr. Korgan. I will kill you, too."

He waved a revolver in the air and then fired two shots at Lepao. Lepao dropped behind the bar at the same time reaching for his revolver. Thinking he had killed Lepao, Rogers ran out of the place and proceeded to his home. Inspector Tom Woods, with several other officers, rushed to the scene and traced Rogers to his home. They found the place barricaded and on attempting to break in, heard two shots fired from the place. When they forced an entrance and they found Rogers dead.

Dr. Korgan states that he never saw or heard of the man, and therefore is of the opinion that he must have been demented.

"The whole affair is a mystery to me," said the doctor. "I never heard of the man in my life and do not know why I was singled out for his wrath."

Reads While Lunch Cooks; House Burns

George Page, 61 years of age, was painfully burned about the face and arms in the fire which did considerable damage at 517 Jefferson street this afternoon. Page was lying in bed reading and had left his gas oven going, cooking his lunch. When the explosion occurred, he rushed to the stove and endeavored to put out the flames and in that way received his injuries.

He was treated at the Emergency Hospital and later taken to the County Infirmary.

The building was the old Travers residence, once the home of Captain Travers, and a relic of older Oakland.

The house was operated as a lodging house by Mrs. W. Richards. A portion of the household goods were rescued. Among the residents in the house were A. Page, Mrs. George Glass, Mrs. W. A. Chick and Mrs. L. Smith. No one was injured.

RAY T. BAKER DENIES MARYE IS TO RESIGN

Ray T. Baker of this city today denied reports that George T. Marye was to resign as American ambassador to Petrograd, as had been reported. Baker is secretary to Marye, and is thus in a position to make authoritative statement. His denial of the rumor is supplemented by that given out today by Secretary of State Lansing.

Reports of Ambassador Marye's resignation were current in Washington and elsewhere, and excited immediately the most considerable interest. It was even said that he had presented the resignation to President Wilson.

Mr. Baker was today at Burlingame with friends. He declared there was absolutely no truth in the story which had been given currency of his chief's resignation. He received a cablegram from the ambassador the first part of the week in which Marye stated that the embassy was working very diligently on a number of matters of importance and that the ambassador was well. No intimation of any sort of a possible resignation was made, and Baker is certain that no such intimation is in the ambassador's mind.

Additional denial came from Secretary Lansing at Washington. He denied the ambassador had resigned, had been recalled or was about to be. He stated there was absolutely no truth in the report, but that Marye was satisfied with his post and the state department with his service thereat.

Mrs. Marye recently returned to Washington from Petrograd, and there met her daughter, who had been left behind at the capital. Together, Mrs. Marye and Miss Marye then came westward to their home in this state. Rumors of Marye's resignation are believed to have arisen from this incident.

CAPITAL HEARS REPORT.

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, July 15.—Reports that Ambassador Marye at Petrograd might resign gained circulation today when it became known that Mrs. Marye, on her return to Washington recently, told friends, including a subordinate official in the State Department, that very probably her husband would ask soon that his successor be appointed.

No official knowledge of Mr. Marye's intention has come either to the White House or the State Department, and the first intimation of it came today in published reports. Mrs. Marye is understood to have told friends that she would not return to Petrograd and expected her husband to resign some time before next Fall. Mrs. Marye is at her home in California.

TENS OF THOUSANDS DROWN WHEN FLOODS SWEEP CHINA

By Associated Press.

HONG KONG, July 15.—Tens of thousands of natives are estimated to have been drowned by the floods in the Chinese provinces of Kwangtung and Kiangsi, and the desolation in the devastated districts is terrible, according to the latest reports reaching here.

A fire-swept area of one mile and raging floods are handicapping the work of rescue in Canton. The city was in darkness last night, the water having inundated the machinery of the electric light plant.

Missionaries have arrived here seeking the assistance of the United States gunboat Callao to aid in the work of rescue. The last report received here from Canton before communication was cut said that the Christian hospital was in danger from fire.

CANTON ALMOST ISOLATED.

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, July 15.—Consul General Anderson at Hong Kong reported today that Canton was isolated, except to powerful steamers. Thousands have been drowned and tens of thousands are taking refuge on high places. Thousands of houses have been burned. American missionary property has either been damaged or destroyed and foreigners are taking refuge at the British consulate at Fu Chow. No Americans have been lost so far as is known.

The American gunboats Wilmington and Callao of the Asiatic Squadron are rushing from Hong Kong to the scene of present floods in China for "urgent rescue work." The Callao is bound for West river and the Wilmington for Canton.

Expect Justice Will Free Thaw

NEW YORK, July 15.—While awaiting the decision of Supreme Court Justice Hendrick on the question of Harry E. Thaw's sanity, Thaw's counsel had prepared for submission to court today a formal order vacating the original commitment under which he was first sent to Matteawan Asylum. Justice Hendrick has promised to receive application for such an order today, but it was understood that his decision whether to free Thaw as sane would not be rendered until tomorrow.

He yesterday rendered a verdict declaring Thaw now sane. Thaw and his counsel had little doubt that the justice's decision would be in accord with the jury's verdict.

Jackling Wins Former Wife's Furs With Coin

LOS ANGELES, July 15.—Judge Taft of the superior court awarded to D. C. Jackling, the mining millionaire, $3000 worth of furs, valued to him by his former wife, Mrs. Jennie B. Jackling, who died here about a year ago. C. W. Duclos claimed the furs, on the ground that Mrs. Jackling had presented them to him shortly before her death. Mrs. Jackling had bequeathed her entire estate, valued at $75,000, to her former husband, and the court ruled that the furs should go with the rest of the property.

The Dermot estate was valued at $10,000.

$500,000 Fire Razes Alaskan City Valdez

VALDEZ, Alaska, July 15.—Fire destroyed today the business section of Valdez. The loss was $500,000. United States troops from Fort Lisianski aided in fighting the flames. Dynamite was used to check the fire. No rain had fallen for weeks and the wooden buildings were as dry as tinder. Strong winds from the high glacier that discharges its debris just behind the town fanned the flames.

Sinking of Nebraskan by Torpedo Admitted in Note

Offer of Complete Reparation Closes Recent Parley

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, July 15.—Secretary Lansing asked the German Ambassador, Count von Bernstorff, today to confer with him tomorrow morning. It is assumed they will discuss the situation between Germany and the United States.

WASHINGTON, July 15.—Germany, in an official memorandum transmitted today from Berlin by Ambassador Gerard, admits that the American steamer Nebraskan was torpedoed by a submarine; expresses regret and readiness to make reparation, and assures the United States that the attack "was not meant for the American flag, but is to be considered an unfortunate accident."

Secretary Lansing made public the German memorandum, which disposes of the question whether the Nebraskan was struck by a torpedo or by a mine. The German memorandum closes the incident. It was said, except as to the payment of damages. The state department made this announcement.

Ambassador Gerard has telegraphed to the state department the following memorandum from the German foreign office relative to the damaging of the American steamer Nebraskan by a German submarine:

INVESTIGATION MADE.
"The German government received from newspaper reports the intelligence that the American steamer Nebraskan had been damaged by a mine or torpedo off the southwest coast of Ireland. It therefore started a thorough investigation of the case without delay, and from the result of the investigation it has become convinced that the damage to the Nebraskan was caused by an attack by a submarine."

On the evening of May 25 last, the submarine met a steamer bound westward without a flag and with no neutral markings on her freeboard, about 25 nautical miles west of Fastnet Rock. No general alarm was given for the illumination of the flag or markings was to be seen. In the twilight, which had already set in, the name of the steamer was not visible from the submarine. Since the vessel with a torpedo, in the conviction that he had an enemy vessel before him."

FLAG RESPECTED THEN.
"Some time after the shot the commander saw that the vessel had in the meantime hoisted the American flag. As a consequence, he, of course, refrained from any further attack. Since the vessel remained afloat, he had no occasion to concern himself further with the boats which had been launched."

"It results from this without a doubt that an attack on the steamer Nebraskan was not meant for the American flag, nor is it traceable to any fault on the part of the commander of the German submarine, but is to be considered an unfortunate accident. The German government expresses its regret at the occurrence to the Government of the United States of America, and declares its readiness to make compensation for the damage thereby sustained by American citizens."

AUSTRIA PROTESTS TRADE

WASHINGTON, July 15.—Austria's diplomatic representations that American exports of war munitions to the allies have attained dimensions endangering the neutrality of the United States have been under consideration at the state department since July 1, but the reply has not yet been determined. On Ambassador Penfield on June 29 is substantially reported, however, in last night's news dispatches from Vienna, via Amsterdam and London.

The Austrian note contends that war exports are a proceeding of the present war are not in consonance with the definition of neutrality. It adds that "it would be quite sufficient to ban the export of munitions."

Coal Strike in Wales Is Cause of Alarm in Great Britain

BULLETIN.

GENEVA, Switzerland, July 15, 11 a. m., via Paris, 2:15 p. m.—A report has reached Basel that a big strike is threatened at the Krupp works at Essen, Germany, the movement being headed by the union of metallurgical workmen and the association of mechanics. They demand higher wages because of the cost of living and shorter hours because of the great strain under which they work, the report says.

The workmen are said to be in angry mood and threaten the destruction of machinery unless their demands are granted immediately. They have been put off for three months with promises.

By Associated Press.

BERLIN, July 15, via London, 3:58 p. m.—Przasnysz, a town of Russian Poland, fifty miles north of Warsaw, has been captured by the German forces, according to the official statement given out today by the German army headquarters' staff.

The Germans also announce that they have captured the village of Konsya, to the south of Kolno, and have stormed the heights of Olszauka, to the northeast of Suwalki.

150,000 MINERS ON STRIKE

LONDON, July 15, 12:10 p. m.—Out of the various manifestations of unrest in the British labor field shown since the outbreak of the war there developed today what may prove, unless an early solution is found, one of the most serious strikes in the history of the country. More than 150,000 men have laid down their tools thereby shutting down virtually all the mines in the Welsh coal fields, which supply steaming coal for the British navy.

The British government, using for the first time the authority granted by the so-called munitions measure, ruled that the miners must not strike, a proclamation to this effect having been issued yesterday. The miners' answer to this proclamation was to go on strike.

Though subject to a daily heavy fine for striking, and though urged by their leaders to allow their demands for higher pay to be arbitrated, the miners threw aside all advice and today refused to take up their picks, thus not only stopping the mines, but leaving idle the mine railways and some ships engaged in coal transport.

THEORY VS. PRACTICE.
Theoretically, the government is empowered to check the strike forthwith, but it is a puzzling problem how the fines authorized under the munitions measure are to be enforced.

No rioting in the strike district had been reported.

The men's leaders have called a conference in the hope of reaching a settlement, and the whole country is watching the outcome of the case, which is to be a test of the government's power to force labor to arbitrate in the face of the men's contention, though not of the leaders, that having made their demands, there is nothing to arbitrate.

WORKERS RISK PRISON TERMS

CARDIFF, Wales, July 15, 10:32 a. m.—In spite of optimistic predictions that serious labor difficulties in the coal fields would be averted, virtually every mine in Wales was idle this morning, the day fixed for the beginning of the miners' strike for higher wages.

In one district alone 20,000 men struck, defying the government's proclamation that the provisions of the munitions act would be invoked to prevent a cessation of operations. By 10 o'clock it was estimated that upwards of 120,000 men were out in all parts of the Welsh fields.

A meeting of the executive committee of the miners' union was held at Cardiff.

What! A Janitor All Dressed Up?

Not Much! Say Oakland School Directors

A white collar and a pair of cuffs cost M. C. Purdy, former custodian of the Jefferson school his job last night. Purdy was ousted from the school by vote of the majority faction of the board of education, composed of Harry Boyle, W. H. Edwards, Dr. F. B. Cook and Louis Aber, in a shake up among janitors that followed the abolition of the rule placing these offices under civil service. Purdy stood highest on the civil service list.

He went around in a clean collar and a pair of cuffs and that isn't the way for a janitor to be dressed," declared Director Harry Boyle. "Think of a janitor doing his work dressed up that way!"

FAMILY OF 15 HERE IN EXILE

Bringing with him a family of thirteen, which cost a small fortune to transport across the Pacific, and swilling the fourteenth child, who is following on another steamer, James Chapple, former New Zealand pastor, is now seeking an American pulpit. He will confer soon with local church officials.

Driven from New Zealand because he preached peace and, so the police said, impaired enlistments, he fled to America with his family in time to prevent the enforced enlistment of his twenty-year-old son in the British army. Here he will preach the sermon that the New Zealand authorities stopped. He is now in Berkeley with his big family.

The voyage of the fifteen, who made the trip on the Marama, cost just $1500, and the head tax of $4 amounted to $60. Each day the British pastor is forced to pay for forty-five meals for his family and five rooms are needed to accommodate the family.

The cost of a ferry trip for the family is $1.10.

Dr. Chapple and his wife have been married for twenty-four years. The family is as follows:

Dora, 23; Hollis, 21; Pernice, 20; Mary, 18; King, 16; Kinsey, 14; Florence, 13; Geoffrey, 11; Deorwyn, 9; Lyndahl, 7; Joyce, 6; Maurice, 5; Arnsley, 3. The second eldest child, a boy, is coming on a later steamer.

THREE ARE TEACHERS.

The three eldest children are teachers and help earn money for the family. The oldest girls make all the clothes for the other children. Each girl has two dresses.

The pastor was established at Timaru, South Island, when his troubles with the New Zealand authorities occurred. He preached a sermon on "New Zealand as a Peace Loving Republic." His sermon was stopped. Two weeks later he gave it under another name. He was threatened with arrest and his son with enforced enlistment. Disposing of his property, he gathered his family and fled to America.

Ancient Murder Case Dropped; No Evidence

BEDFORD, Ia., July 15.—The case against Bates Huntsman, who has been on preliminary trial before Justice M. A. Sawyer for the alleged murder of his wife, was dismissed today by Justice Sawyer.

The case was dismissed upon the motion of the attorneys for Huntsman shortly before noon. Attorney General Cosson, representing his department acquiesced in the motion, stating to the court that the refusal to admit the evidence of John Derickson with reference to "Dora A. B. Goldar," the hermit-druggist, who was said to have been a participant in the alleged crime, had made it impossible for the state to proceed further.

War Trade Conference of Exporters Called

By Associated Press.

AMERICAN meat packers in conference here with the state department have been asked by representatives of cotton-growers, investors' interests, cattle officials in the cotton and cattle belts and other interests affected by the war, to join in a general conference for a special session of Congress to deal with the rights of neutrals and to take up the question of providing shipping facilities for Americans.

Representatives of the Chicago packing-houses disclaimed any initiative action in the proposed conference.

Fate of Plute Is in Hands of Jury

DENVER, July 15.—The case of Tse-Ne-Gat, the Plute Indian, on trial in the federal court here, charged with murder in connection with the killing of Juan Chacon, a Mexican sheepherder, was given to the jury shortly before noon today.

OAKLAND TO FIGHT FOR TRADE

Readjustment of Rates Is Demanded by Business Men

Railroad Commission to Begin Hearing Next Tuesday

Oakland will enter upon another contest for transportation rights next Tuesday, when the State Railroad Commission will begin the hearing demanded by the municipality on the question of reducing freight rates between interior cities and towns to cities on the east shores of the bay.

San Francisco businessmen, it is understood, will put up strenuous opposition. Victory for Oakland, say local business men, will be of incalculable value in building up this city as a distributing center.

Oakland's contention is this: That freight rates from interior points by all railroads entering the city should be reduced in proportion to the less railroad and transportation mileage represented by the distance San Francisco is westerly, from Oakland.

"This fight is a very material one for Oakland," states M. M. Jones, secretary of the Manufacturer's committee of the Oakland Commercial Club. "Freight now shipped from an interior point in this state to Oakland merchants is sent at the same rate that would be paid were that merchandise to be sent to a San Francisco firm. In other words, the railroads are discriminating against the Oakland merchant to the extent that they are making them pay a rate above of that which is justified by the actual transportation mileage."

"If the Railroad Commission rules that the railroads must lower the rates on freight shipped from interior points to Oakland merchants, it will mean much for this city. It will mean, for instance, that a large amount of freight which is now going to San Francisco merchants will be shipped to Oaklanders. It also means that Oakland will become a distributing center."

The recent order of the Interstate Commerce Commission, making Oakland one of the seven terminal points in the state, and eliminating as terminals 175 other cities and towns which formerly held that business asset and distinction, will go into effect August 15. This ruling has nothing to do with the case to come up for hearing in San Francisco Tuesday.

Diver Trap May Be Bane of Submarines

SACRAMENTO, July 15.—Submarine building will have to be revolutionized if the invention of E. A. Krietsch of this city accomplishes all he claims for it. A small model, in a recent test on the Sacramento river, trapped, held and destroyed a miniature submarine, claiming that the invention could do it.

Patents are now pending on his invention, and the Italian Ambassador at Washington, D. C., on behalf of the Italian government, will make an offer for the invention if tests to be made are successful.

The invention of Krietsch is a submarine trap. The device fastens to the underside of a craft. At a specified time, gauged by clockwork, the device will blow up the enemy vessel. It is so mechanically arranged that it clings itself to the boat, automatically shutting off its own power.

The trap is constructed so that floating air chambers support a steel framework of bolt locks and electric devices operating the alternating air chambers and explosives. The trap is inexpensive. It is self-propelling, and, once started, will remain afloat an indefinite period.

Krietsch is a local machinist. He gained an insight to submarines while in the employ of the government of Holland.

Sacramento Jitneys Quit as a Protest

SACRAMENTO, July 15.—The 5-cent fare automobiles which have been carrying a large proportion of the passenger traffic of Sacramento, quit operations today as a protest against the regulatory ordinance passed by the city commission. The ordinance goes into effect tomorrow.

This action was decided upon last night after the association of drivers had been unable to secure desired concessions from the city government. Those drivers who do not agree in the strike will be arrested for violation of some of the provisions of the ordinance, according to the association.

The provisions to which the automobile drivers take most exception are those providing for a bond of $5000 and limiting the carrying capacity.

Work and Play Are Wilson's Activities

CORNISH, N. H., July 15.—President Wilson divided his time today between working, golfing and automobileing. He was out on the golf links early, then retired to his study to consider official business. He has been absent from Washington during his present trip longer than at any other time since becoming President.

CAMPUS OAKS HOUSE MUSICIANLY THRONG

Al Fresco Session Is Second in Interest Only to Feast

One of the most charming features on the musical program of the State Music Teachers' Association was the program by Lombardi's Wind Instrument Ensemble in a beautiful pastoral setting beneath the oaks of the Faculty Club at Berkeley this morning. The classic interpretative dances by Miss Norma Gould who "made music visible" in thisylvan glade. The wood wind instruments, suggestive of the shepherd's pipes, consisted of the oboe, clarinet and flute with a French horn as a barrier. The players were A. Lombardi, F. Forte, A. Ravella and F. C. Huxley. Following luncheon at the Faculty Club the delegates again took up their program at Hotel Oakland ballroom, where an interesting song round table was conducted by William Edwin Chamberlain. Here addresses were made by Carlotta Lundine and Miss Marie Withrow. The afternoon was concluded with a song recital by Lawrence Strauss, accompanied by Joseph McIntyre. His aria from "Suzanne" were especially pleasing. RENOWNED PIANIST THIS EVENING. Ernest R. Kroeger is a composer and pianist of St. Louis. He is lecturing at the University of California summer session and is also heard at Festival Hall. Exposition grounds, in organ recitals. Mr. Kroeger occupies this evening's session with a piano recital, which will be held in Ebell Hall, Harrison and Fourteenth streets. His program will be: Part 1—Sonata in D minor, Opus 31, No. 2 (L. von Beethoven); Improvisation, Opus 45 (F. Chopin); Prelude, Opus 45 (F. Chopin); March from Opus 12 (F. Schumann); Liebestraum, No. 1 (F. Liszt); Jagt Pie Music, from "Die Walkure" (Wagner-Brassin). Part 2—Arioso, Opus 46, No. 1 (E. R. GATHER AT BANQUET. The annual banquet of the association was participated in by all the delegates and guests, with Alexander Stewart officiating as toastmaster. The response to toasts proved of great interest. Owen E. Hottle of the Oakland Commercial Club answered to "What the Business Man Needs of Music." His ideas on the subject were thus expressed: "In response to this toast perhaps I can best make clear what I consider that need is by an experience I had a few nights ago in the club after a tiresome day of work. I was playing dominoes when attracted by the strains of the piano, on which we usually hear rag time. I heard a soothing, sweet melody that seemed to drip from the fingers of the musician like soft dew drops from the petals of a rose. So different was it from the usual one made of the club piano that I turned with a feeling of gratitude to Professor McIntyre, who was playing, for that touch of some melody, which I did not know and which I perhaps would not recognize again, seemed to reach my conscious self and from thence to my heart. "What did the player do? I don't know. Perhaps he set up a system of vibration that harmonized with the vibratory element of my own nature. I don't even know that there is such a thing. The great truth was that what he did, but that he did it, a something indescribable and yet conscious. This is the business man's need of music. He needs music as he needs any other refreshing thing. MUSIC A NECESSITY. William Edwin Chamberlain, baritone, of Berkeley, in answering to the toast "Musician Needs of the Business Man," said: "First, the musician needs the co-operation of the business man and his support. But we must first be sure that we are capable of supporting ourselves and have something to offer before we deserve support from the business man. The business man and musician need each other so badly that I wonder they have been separated so long. "I think that in a measure this separation is the fault of the musician, for you will admit that some of us are queer and some of us are not queer but tried to be. A business man says that a musician is not practical and in reply the musician says that a business man is not artistic. I think that the musician who associates himself with the business man will be a more successful musician, and the business man will be equally benefited by closer association with the musical fraternity. Thousand Priests at Head of Impressive Funeral Procession.

CHICAGO, July 14.—The funeral of Archbishop James Edward Quinn, held today, was the most imposing seen in the city for many years. The procession was composed of more than one thousand priests, and was accompanied by a band of music. The funeral was held at the Holy Name church, and was attended by a large number of people. The body was laid out in a mausoleum at Mount Carmel cemetery.

U. S. Growing Richer on War, Hurley Says

By Associated Press. CHICAGO, July 14.—The United States is growing richer on war, says a leading Chicago business leader today. He pointed out that the war has created a demand for many goods and services, which has led to an increase in production and employment. He also pointed out that the war has led to an increase in the price of many goods, which has led to an increase in the value of the nation's assets.

An Easy Way to Get Fat and Be Strong

The trouble with most thin folks who wish to gain weight is that they insist on dragging their stomachs or stuffing it with greasy foods, rubbing on useless "flesh creams" or following some foolish diet of thinness goes unimproved. Fat is not set fat until your digestive tract assimilates the food you eat. Thanks to a remarkable new scientific discovery, it is now possible to combine into simple form the very elements needed by the digestive organs to help them convert food into rich, fat-laden blood. This master stroke of modern chemistry is called Sargol and has been termed the greatest of flesh builders. Sargol aims through its regenerative, constructive powers to coax the stomach and intestines to literally soak up the fattening elements of your food and pass them into the blood, where they are carried to every starved, broken-down cell of tissue of your body. You can readily picture the result when this amazing transformation has taken place and you notice how your cheeks fill out, hollows about your neck, shoulders and bust disappear and you take on from 10 to 20 pounds of solid, healthy flesh. Sargol is "certified" harmless, non-toxic, effective. Osgood Bros. Drug Stores and other leading druggists of Oakland and vicinity have it and will refund your money if you are not satisfied, as per the guarantee found in every package. Caution—While Sargol has given excellent results in overcoming nervousness, it should not be taken by those who do not wish to gain ten pounds or more.—Advertisement.

JEFFERSON IS
MODEL

Victorious Mexican Commander Tells Plans for Country's Regeneration.

By Associated Press. VERA CRUZ, July 15.—Assuming that the Constitutionalists are endeavoring to establish in Mexico a government along the lines advocated by Thomas Jefferson, and comparing President Wilson to Jefferson, Venustiano Carranza, first chief of the Constitutionalists, today gave out an extended interview which is regarded here as a bid for recognition of the Constitutionalists by the United States. General Carranza pointed to the re-occupation of Mexico City by the Constitutionalists and his plan for an orderly government there as the basis for American support.

"We feel that we are entitled to the sympathy of the American government in all we are trying to do," said General Carranza. "We have such faith in the democratic purpose of President Wilson that we are confident he will give to the Constitutionalists his whole support."

"Mexico City will, of course, be the seat of our government and all national official activities will be transferred there at the earliest possible moment. Everything possible will be done to transform Mexico City into a peaceful, orderly and businesslike community. I shall strive to win the confidence of foreigners living there and in so doing obtain their co-operation with the Mexicans in giving the new government the support which is essential to the success of the republic."

General Carranza said that in due course he would call a convention for congress, that he would make a report to the Congress and that Congress would issue a call for an election to supersede the provisional government. The new government, he added, would grant amnesty to all persons except those guilty of political crimes.

FRIENDLY TO RED CROSS.

As to his attitude toward the Red Cross, General Carranza said it was friendly. He declared that he never had claimed there was no suffering, but that he felt that supplies should be sent to towns indiscriminately. In Vera Cruz recently there had been no suffering and the people felt offended because food was being forced upon them. He said he would be glad to give safe conduct to any supplies forwarded by the Red Cross and distributed in co-operation with the government, although the government already had contracted for supplies for the relief of Mexico City.

General Carranza, in the interview, also promised suppression of country and religious freedom of Catholic priests. He added that he desired to cultivate friendly relations with the United States.

CARRANZA WINNING.

EL PASO, Tex., July 15.—General Villa has abandoned the idea of crossing the border into the United States, according to reliable although unofficial information. This action has given to Carranza possession of all but one of the important points on the railroad from Mexico City to the American frontier. Carranza, so far as is known here, continues to hold Queretaro, but with a small force, now isolated. His own position at Torreon is regarded by military observers as precarious.

By the abandonment of Aguas Calientes and Zacatecas, Villa has yielded to General Obregon, the means for supplies from the East, although as yet communication does not appear to have been established.

The forces of Villa destroyed long stretches of railway both east and south of Obregon and south of Queretaro, but there is no evidence that he has any considerable force in any of those directions to hinder repair work.

From the interior it was reported today that the Carranzas forces from Monterrey were planning to co-operate with Obregon by moving westward against Villa at Torreon, while another force is attempting to get between him and the American frontier by a march westward from Monclova.

Villa has on hand some millions of rounds of ammunition and his army is not suffering for foodstuffs. He appears, however, not to be well supplied with money and it is said that the Carranzas have shown some increase due to the comparatively small pay soldiers receive and the large price paid for labor.

Carranza adherents here are jubilant over the prospect of an early resumption of traffic over the railroad from Mexico City to Laredo. They admit, however, that the work of destruction at some places along the line has been so complete that several weeks may pass before a through train is operated.

MONEY IS SCARCE.

WASHINGTON, July 15.—Mexico City, freed of the perils of siege and with prospects of food, money, now is confronted with another famine—a scarcity of money. Millions in currency issued by the various factions as control of the capital passed back and forth between them during the last year have been repudiated by each succeeding government.

Although supported by decree while the issuing faction remained in control of all currency now in the hands of the populace is of doubtful value. Villa issued large amounts as did Zapata, and when

ARTISANS OF GREAT WEST BEGIN SESSION WITH PARADE

CADET CLUB OF OREGON ASSEMBLY NO. 1, UNITED ARTISANS OF PORTLAND, AND MRS. CLARA J. KNOTT, INSTRUCTOR.

Delegates From Many States Are Welcomed in Convention by Mayor Davie

United Artisans from all states west of Colorado, and numbering close to 500, opened their first annual convention in the Pacific building, Sixth and Jefferson streets, this morning. The convention will continue for three days, the last day, Saturday, to be United Artisans' Day at the Exposition.

This morning was spent in the receiving and registration of delegates, who are present from all parts of California, Oregon, Washington, Nevada, Idaho, Montana and Wyoming. The highest officials of the order are here in a body from Portland and Salem, Ore.

The formal convention opening took place this afternoon, following a parade of the organization members through the downtown district at 1:30 o'clock. The paraders assembled at Thirteenth and Harrison streets, marched west to Broadway, to the Twelfth street, to Jefferson and north to the place of meeting. The lodge officials headed the line of march. Drill teams of the Oakland, Portland and Salem organizations executed fancy maneuvers along the streets.

Arrived at the Pacific building, the delegates were met by Mayor John L. Davie, who delivered a brief address of welcome. H. S. Hudson, Supreme Master Artisan, gave the response. C. L. McKenna, of Portland, Eugene Kissel, president of the 1915 Club of Portland, and Judge

Robert G. Morrow, supreme justice, also of Portland, also gave short addresses. A musical program was also given. Mrs. Edna Cunard Kirk and Felicia Davis McDonald of this city, Miss Edna Tyson of Niles and Eugene Kissel and Harvey Hudson Jr. of Portland participating.

GREAT INITIATION.

At the meeting this evening of the biggest classes in the history of the organization will be initiated at service to be held in Woodman's Hall in the Pacific building. Members of Capitol Assembly of Salem, Ore., will give an exemplification of the order's ritualistic work. Opening exercises will be in charge of Golden Gate Assembly No. 42 of Oakland.

The evening will close with a dance. Local members of the United Artisans will be the hosts tomorrow morning to the visitors in a series of automobile and trolley trips to the points of interest about the city and county. A general luncheon will be served in the Pacific buildings, and the business sessions resumed at 2 o'clock. Frank M. Reed, who is chairman of the 1915 convention committee of arrangements, will give an address on the "Object of the Meeting," to be followed by remarks by Eugene Kissel.

Mrs. Josephine E. Gearhard, secretary, will report to the delegates of the convention which was held at Fresno in May of last year.

This will be followed by a general discussion for the good of the order. Miss Irene Young and Miss Orma Burdick are on the program for a number of vocal solos during the afternoon.

The convention ball will be held Friday night. It will follow competitive drills for a silver trophy between the women's drill teams of Oakland, Portland and Salem.

Saturday will be Artisan Day at the Exposition. The program will begin at 10:30 o'clock in the morning in the Oregon building, with a selection by the women's band of the order. An official of the Exposition will present the order a commemorative bronze medal, which will be accepted by Mrs. Ella Watt, the supreme instructor.

George Hyland, manager of the Oregon building at the Exposition, will deliver an address of welcome, to which Judge Robert G. Morrow, of Portland, will respond. C. L. McKenna, the supreme secretary, will also speak. H. S. Hudson, the supreme master Artisan, will deliver the address of the day. Exhibition drills will be given by the 1915 drill teams.

Other features of the program will be a vocal solo by Mrs. Edna Cunard Kirk, who is the supreme junior conductor; a tenor solo by Harvey Hudson Jr., reading by Miss Nevada Reed, of Oakland, and a vocal solo by Mrs. Lois Peebles Junck of Berkeley.

Suffrage Women Sue to Keep Yellow Auto

By Associated Press. PHILADELPHIA, July 15.—Counsel for Dr. Anna Howard Shaw, president of the National American Woman Suffrage Association, has instituted equity proceedings to enjoin the Delaware county authorities from selling at public auction the little yellow automobile "Eastern Victory" to satisfy a tax assessment. This assessment was made last night by Miss Lucy Anthony, secretary to Dr. Shaw, who added that the suffrage leader was no longer a resident of this state but had made her home in New York since she returned from abroad in 1912. The officials claim the $120 taxes for arrears due from Dr. Shaw since 1912, when the suffrage leader declined to make out a list of her taxable property on the ground that she was not a voter, and therefore, was not subject to taxation.

The car which was the gift of New York suffragists was seized at Moyland, Pa., and is to be sold at auction on July 24 at Media.

"HUMAN SALVAGE" TO BE TOPIC AT CHURCH

Next Sunday morning the service in the Brooklyn Presbyterian Church of Oakland will be given over to a consideration of the problem of prisons and prisoners. Captain William I. Day will occupy the pulpit and will use as a subject "The Salvage of Human Wreckage."

The proposition of a State Industrial Farm will be presented as a solution to the complex problems encountered in dealing with the prisoners of our State. This plan has been unanimously endorsed by the various ministerial associations and many of the business and society clubs of the bay cities.

COMMANDER SHOT.

By Associated Press. LAREDO, Tex., July 15.—A private telegram today says that Raulo Madero, a Villa commander, was shot through the thigh but not dangerously wounded, at Laredo, near Monterrey. Passengers from Monterrey to Laredo in some cases the bodies of the dead from battles were of Monterey have been piled aboard gondola cars between layers of old wood and then burned.

'Ireland' to Be Roberson's Topic Tonight; 'Germany' Next
Norwegian Lecture and Music Charm Macdonough Crowds

A realistic tour of Norway, the "land of the midnight sun," with native Norwegians taking part was the attractive program last evening at the Macdonough theater in The Tribune's travelogue by Frank Roberson.

The Norwegian singing society, under the direction of Peter J. Olsen, sang two Norwegian songs before the travelogue started and then another—the national song of the northland country—as the splendid colored pictures of splashing waterfalls, mighty fjords, and rugged mountains flashed one by one on the screen.

The delight of the audience in the singing as well as the pictures was evidenced by the round of applause which followed. Pictures and music blended well and little bit in travelogue touring to be desired, unless perhaps it should be an actual tour of Norway.

The singers taking part were: Peter J. Olsen, director; A. Anonson, J. H. Fluren, Sigurd Ottensen, L. W. Anderson, A. Arneson, M. A. Sundby, Anton Fedt, A. M. Jansen, Nick Nelson, Julius Kristiansen, Olaf Froland, Nels Gaustad and L. D. Madsen.

IRELAND TONIGHT.

Ireland—the mention of which name immediately brings to mind pleasing thoughts of a sunny-hearted people, delightful legends of all-conquering giants, rugged old castles and bare-footed and petticoated comes tonight as the picture-four by Mr. Roberson to The Tribune series at the Macdonough.

There is hardly a country in the world that holds the fascination and stirs the imagination as Ireland. Famous Blarney Castle, where to kiss the "Blarney stone" is to attain an everlasting flow of fluent speech, is just one of the many places of interest in this subject. The picture in this subject will be the same as given before pictures of the army and navy, the Kaiser and Kaiserin, crown prince and crown princess, and generals. The tour will embrace all the interesting things to be seen in the fatherland. Admission to any travelogue through the arrangement made by The Tribune and Macdonough is 10 cents with the Tribune's coupon for an unreserved seat in either balcony, or 25 cents with the coupon for a reserved seat on the first floor. Admission without the coupon is 50 cents.

Abe Ruef Editing
Bandit's Memoirs
Two Collaborators in San Quentin Busy

STOCKTON, July 15.—Frank Moseley, admittedly a criminal of forty years' experience, who was recently sentenced to San Quentin for the crime of stealing in this city, is writing a book under the tutelage of Abe Ruef, according to Assistant District Attorney C. P. Rendon, who prosecuted him.

The prisoner's purpose in writing an autobiography, says Rendon, is to convince young men that a career in crime is bound to terminate disastrously.

Forty years of crime, twenty of which were spent in prisons, qualify Moseley to handle the subject he has chosen. Being neither a grammarian nor a rhetorician, Moseley induced Ruef to edit his chapters.

"Tell young men to listen," he says, "while an old man tells them something. When they have seen life from many different points of view, as I have, from smoking cars, sleepers, diners and Pullman cars, hotels, revival meetings, churches, saloons, gambling dives, dance halls, jails, courthouses, penitentiaries and public hangings, they will learn a few things, and some of them in particular—don't play with fire; it will burn as sure as hell it hot."

"My health is not as good as it has been, and I don't see anything that looks like land to me yet, and I see no light in the East."

LEAVES GIRL RING AND KILLS HIMSELF

TURLOCK, July 15.—"Buy the picture and flowers with me. Give Milla my ring, gun and handkerchief." After making the above offer to a young girl, Lloyd Sinker, aged 21, yesterday killed himself at the home of his brother-in-law John R. Holgate, three miles from this city.

The girl referred to in the note is Miss Milla Smith, who lives on a 40-acre ranch, and who, it is reported, last Sunday refused to marry Sinker and rejected his ring. The suicide's parents live at Stafford, Ariz.

The body was found by the three-year-old daughter of Holgate.

WANT DRIVES
DRIFTWOOD

Ragged Little Figure Is Index to Tragedy of Grim Suffering.

There are many motives that may impel to association with the sea. Kings have stood beside it in quixotic testing of their might. Lovers have strolled thereby to make musical the poet's lyre. Men have gone down to it for adventure or for gain. But how many more enjoyments are reaped than by the fellow who seeks at its margin for driftwood—and especially if there is a bit of a gnawing at a fellow's little insides and a prospect of ending it if the driftwood catch it large? Driftwood is an elusive thing. God wot, and it must be with diligence pursued. A fellow cannot stand about and dream if he expects to profit by the undertakings, especially if he is a bit tight and very dry and the log of the bag of bottom is torture to his back.

So you will find moving with rare agility almost any time of day a slip of a lad who pursues this vocation along the bar and estuary front. You will wonder at the diligence of one so young, especially if your experience of him is casual. You will wonder less if you follow him to the little home in Fifth street he shares with five sisters and brothers and their widowed mother. You won't wonder at all when you come to understand that the catch he made yesterday brought him ten cents' worth of meat that kept the lives of this little family aglow to day; that its only supplement was a loaf of bread; that flour for more loaves and money for more meat is quite, quite gone, and there is no prospect of its replacement.

The grim tragedy of this Fifth street group is expressed in the ragged, trudging little figure along the shore. Beyond the boy the lad lives in his unpromising business and the mother could earn when a moment was to be spared from tending her brood, no money for weeks has come into the home. The family are behind in their rent and even the kindness of their landlord avails nothing against a complication which even he cannot control. The house in which they live has been condemned by the city as unfit for human occupancy. Out they must go and very soon. Where they may find a place to lay their heads or to guard themselves from the bay winds from which their ragged clothing does not protect them, they cannot say.

The six children are all small. The boy is one of the largest, and he is such a little mite his mother permits only the drive of sheer want to let her send him out alone. His shadings yesterday were ten cents, and with this a cheap cut of meat was purchased which staved off starvation another day. The floor which has been rapidly diminishing was surplanted this morning for the making of one last loaf. After that there would be nothing—just the pain of sheer hunger and the cold of the outer dark.

There are many things the family needs, and these it must receive in all possible haste. Food is the first item in the list, then clothing. Money is needed for bills unpaid and provision must be made for a new home for the little group. There isn't time any longer for scientific inquiry on the causes of poverty; suffering is right at hand; its first touch has been already felt.

Suffering is a human modesty in the widowed woman that makes her want not to be a public spectacle. There must

QUET SHARON
FUNERAL IS PLANNED

First Service in New Palace Hotel to Be That of Its Owner.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 15.—With only the immediate relatives in attendance and with strict privacy characterizing the funeral of Frederick Sharon, president of the Palace Hotel Company and son of the late United States Senator William Sharon, will be held at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning. The services will be held in the Sharon apartments at the Palace Hotel, and the interment will take place at Holy Cross Cemetery. There will be no pall bearers and the simple home ritual of the Roman Catholic church will be guided. The members of the family were unable to say today who would conduct the services.

The funeral will be the first one to be held from the new Palace Hotel since its erection following the fire. Those who by reason of their nearness to the deceased will be in the group around the casket are, besides the widow, Dr. Harry Tevis, Senator Francis G. Newlands, and Dr. Julian Walker, who attended Sharon in his last illness.

Prisoner Uses Pepper in Attempted Escape

TACOMA, Wash., July 15.—Throwing a handful of pepper in the eyes of Detective Frank Geary of the city police force, who had taken him out to get shaved, and who stopped at a store to buy the prisoner some tobacco, Joe Parrott, held as a suspect for the murders of Fred Weiss and John Rayney, attempted to escape yesterday afternoon. Though partly blinded, the officer shot at the fleeing man, hitting him in the hand and compelling him to surrender. Later a finger had to be amputated from the hand. Parrott admitted he had been laying in a supply of pepper by asking for more at every meal at the city jail, saying his food was not sufficiently seasoned.

FAKE DELIVERYMEN KEEPS THE CHANGE

A man representing himself to be a deliveryman for the Wells Fargo Co., 1222 Grove street, last night and told her he had a package on which there were charges of $1.85. She gave him $5, and he went to obtain change for her. The man failed to return, and inquiry at the Wells Fargo office revealed the fact that none of the employees of the company answered the description. The trick has been used frequently of late in Oakland.

Gustav A. Johanson of the Piedmont baths reported the theft of a valuable camera from his room. The theft of a purse containing $55 was reported by Pet Theodoreopoulos, 214 Washington street.

Nazimova Thrills Crowds; Sensational Film Coming

Lively Bills Play in Vaudeville Houses

F. S. Gunter is in City Jail on Complaint of His Spouse.

Such a thing as a woman achieving a great success in the film industry is not a new thing. But when a woman achieves a great success in the film industry and then marries a man who is a failure, it is a new thing. This is the case of Mrs. F. S. Gunter, who has achieved a great success in the film industry and then married a man who is a failure.

OAKLAND PHOTO

The millions of Mary Pickford's admirers who have seen their favorite in "Tess of the Storm Country," "Such a Little Queen," "Hearts Adrift," "Behind the Scenes," "Mistress Nell," "Cinderella," "Fanchon the Croquet Girl," "The Dawn of Tomorrow," and others of her memorable characterizations, have more and more marveled at the wide range of roles that have been enacted by her.

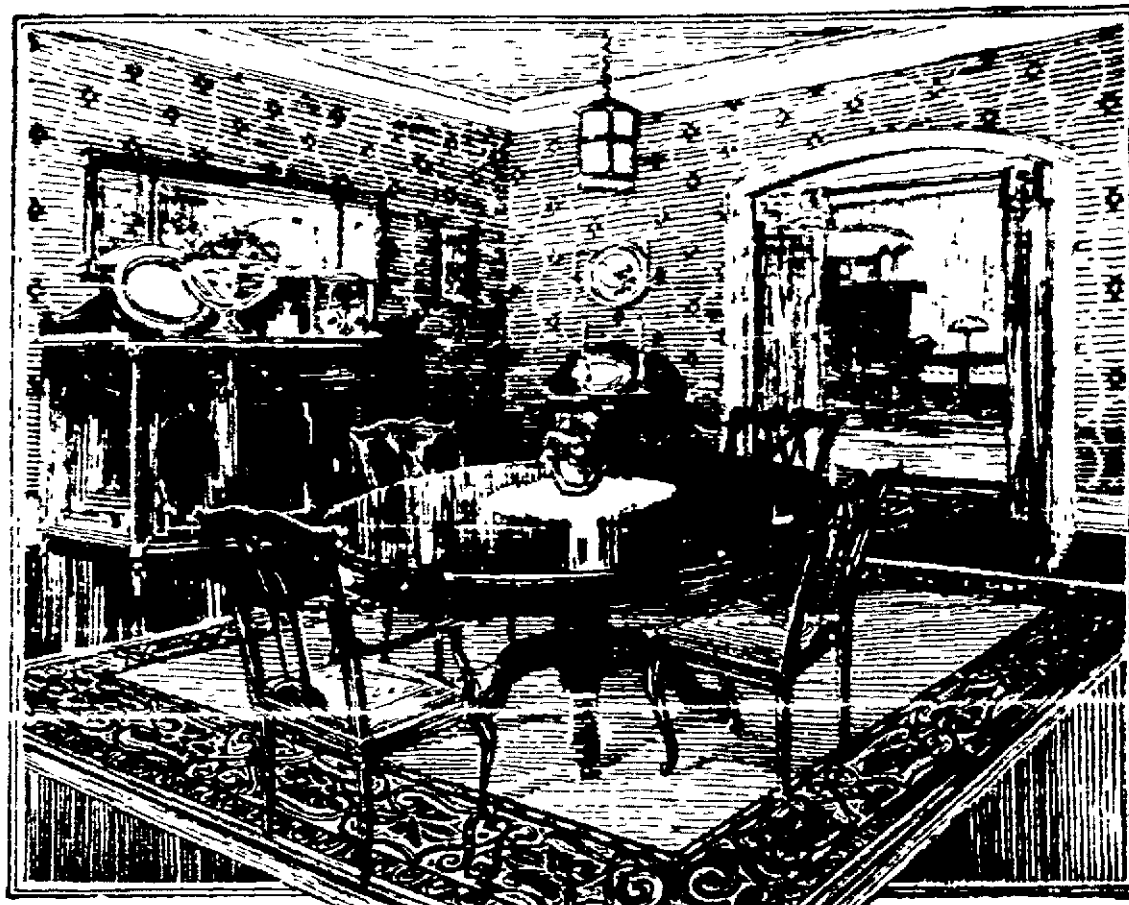

FRANKLIN

Edith Storey will be seen as Katherine Brenton in "The Island of Regeneration" at the Franklin theater three days, commencing today. Not a very great variety of patterns to be sure, but if from the half dozen or more that are offered you can find one that fits into your home scheme—then a most unusual value awaits you. These rugs have the rich, plush-like surface that have made Axminsters so popular and the colorings are particularly well blended. Size, nine feet wide by twelve feet long.

CERTAINLY, black all-Havanas are fine in their place, especially after a hearty dinner.

But to spin out a good evening when some friends drop in, pass around the Gen'l Arthurs. Their mild Havana flavor pleases the average taste and leaves a man with a clear head and clean palate the morning after.
